Before the Financial Aid Office can offer a dependent student additional Direct Unsubsidized Loan, we must document your parent's ineligibility for a Direct PLUS Loan is due to adverse credit or other exceptional circumstances.

Please indicate the reason below:

- Parent indicated they would appeal the credit decision or indicated they would seek an endorser for the loan but are no longer interested in pursuing these avenues.
- Parent is not a US citizen or permanent resident or is not able to provide evidence that they are in the US for other than a temporary purpose with the intention of becoming a citizen or permanent resident.
- Parent has filed for bankruptcy and is prohibited from taking on additional debt - attach appropriate documentation that substantiates this claim.
- Parent is incarcerated.
- Parent's whereabouts are unknown.
- Parent's income is limited to public assistance or disability benefits and would be unable to repay the loan.
- Other, please specify here: _____
