

“ HelloWallet gives financial advice to all Americans. ”

-President Bill Clinton

Looking for a Better Way to Manage Your Money & Plan for the Future?

California State University has partnered with HelloWallet to provide affordable financial guidance to all CSU employees.

HelloWallet is an easy-to-use, online personal finance tool that will help you:

- Build Savings
- Reduce Debt
- Get and Track a Personal Financial Plan
- Find Better Bank Products
- Keep Tabs on Your Spending

HelloWallet is entirely free to join. After the initial free-trial period, which expires December 31, 2010, the monthly membership schedule is $4 a month. Quarterly and annual payment schedules are also available.

Learn more and sign up at www.hellowallet.com/csu. Make sure to enter the East Bay promotional code when you register: HELLOCSUEB.

Sign up for free today and you'll be entered to win $100. Two winners will be selected in September & October 2010, receiving $100 each to jump-start their savings! See website for official rules.

.....

Let your money work for you. HelloWallet is completely independent from banks.

Some HelloWallet members have found $600 in savings within the first month of joining!