

Outdoor Educator Job Description - Seasonal - California Based

At EcoExperience Program, we have the unique opportunity to lead, inspire, and influence younger generations. We provide outdoor education and nature immersions for grade students in the Bay Area.

Our Outdoor Educators play an important role in accomplishing our mission. Our core values are service, empathy, integrity, honesty, and a growth mindset. Students see our instructors as examples and role models for their future.

As an Outdoor Educator, you will lead groups of grade students on adventures in nature.

Trip Dates: June 2nd - 6th, 2024

Responsibilities & What to Expect:

- Five-day campout in Mendocino County or the Sierra Nevada with 30-35 students and teachers.
- Guide students in various outdoor activities (i.e., archery, hiking, nature journaling, wood carving).
- Deliver workshops on leadership and survival skills.
- Creatively engage the group through games.
- Facilitate discussion on mindfulness and self-reflection.
- Support and collaborate with the Team Director in managing group dynamics.
- Ability to manage risk.

Qualifications:

- Growth Mindset - the willingness to learn new skills.
- Passion for the Outdoors
- Safety Consciousness - First Aid certification preferred but not required.

Outcomes:

As an Outdoor Educator, you will be able to practice and develop the following:

- Collaboration
- Communication Skills
- Facilitation
- Leadership Skills
- Mindfulness & Self-Reflection
- Survival Skills

What We Offer:

- Daily Compensation: $150 - $185 DOE
- Training & Development
- Career Advancement
- A fun & youthful work culture

If you are interested, please email your resume and contact information to

raul@eco-experience.com