

College of Education and Allied Studies
Department of Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism
California State University, East Bay
M.S. in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism
Catalog Year 2021-2022

Checklist

- 3.0 GPA Overall in Major       Grade of B or Better in Every Course       All Major Requirements Completed

HRT Requirements				Course Plan						Grade
#	Title	Units	Term	Fall, Spring
Recreation Major Core Requirements				Fall/Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring	Fall	Spring
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 600	Foundations of Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Fall
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 610	Strategic Leadership and Ethics in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Fall
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 620	Organizational Development in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Spring
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 630	Advanced Data Driven Decision Making in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Spring
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 640	Law and Risk in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Fall
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 650	Fiscal Management in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Fall
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 660	Sustainable Solutions in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Spring
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 670	Advanced Marketing in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism	3	Spring
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 680	Trends and Issues in Hospitality, Recreation and Tourism (equivalent to 693A)	3	Fall
<input type="checkbox"/>	REC 693	Applied Research Project (equivalent to 693B)	3	Spring

Academic Advisors: hrtkin.advisors@csueastbay.edu

Graduate Coordinator: hrt-graduate@csueastbay.edu

Students need a cumulative GPA of 3.0 and a “B” or better is required in all courses.

The three research classes must be taken in order: 630, 680, and 693.

Ideally, REC 600 should be one of the first classes taken and REC 693 should be the last course taken.

Name:		Net ID:
Academic Year:		Date (or Revised On):	