Math Science Nucleus (Fremont)

Position Description:

Intern will learn how to propagate different native plants in our greenhouse and nursery area, which will then be used in many of our projects at our environmental facilities. Work will be mainly outside but intern will learn about different techniques. Maintain existing plants (especially trees) will also be done. Location would mainly be at Tule Ponds at Tyson Lagoon but some planting in East Bay Hills.