MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY presents

ARCHAEOLOGY INC.

THE BUSINESS of HUMAN HISTORY

Modern archaeology is a billion-dollar business centered on Cultural Resource Management (CRM), the discipline's for-profit branch. Indiana Jones went corporate half a century ago and this exhibit chronicles that shift, offering an insider's perspective on this little known but highly influential industry employing around 80% of all archaeologists.

Our exhibit draws on CRM-sourced collections and engages with industry professionals and alumni to offer visitors a sense for the everyday work and often grueling reality of CRM archaeology and for the variety of community partnerships, indigenous consultancies, and archaeological collections the work produces alongside some of the controversies it has generated over the decades.

Open Mon - Fri 11:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Oct 25 - Dec 17, 2021 and Jan 24 - Mar 4, 2022
