ARTICULATION AGREEMENT between South China Normal University and California State University, East Bay

Bachelor of Arts (BA) Degree in Music Study Abroad Program

This Agreement is entered into between the Trustees of the California State University on behalf of California State University, East Bay (collectively “CSUEB”), and South China Normal University, China (“SCNU”). CSUEB and SCNU are referred to collectively as the Parties.

This Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions pursuant to which the Parties agree to collaborate to facilitate the entry of SCNU students to the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music program at CSUEB. Students of SCNU shall take General Education and part of the music courses before they enter CSUEB.

ARTICLE I: INTRODUCTION/PARTIES TO THE AGREEMENT:

Section 1. SCNU is an accredited Chinese university with the proper recognition of the Chinese Ministry of Higher Education, and desires to form a collaborative relationship with CSUEB to provide foundation courses to those students in China who have been accepted by CSUEB with conditional admission approval. SCNU’s address is: 55 Zhongshan Avenue West, Tianhe District, Guangzhou, China 510631.

The responsible parties at SCNU are:
1. Liang Tiexiang, Deputy Director, Division for International Exchange, Office of International Exchange and Cooperation.
   Tel: 139-222-61276; Email: liangtiexiang@126.com
2. Prof. Yang Tianjun, Dean, College of Music

Section 2. CSUEB is an accredited campus of the California State University, located in Hayward, California, United States. CSUEB’s American Language Program offers an "Intensive English Program" ("IEP") which is designed to provide non-native English speaking students with the English language proficiency necessary for academic success at CSUEB. CSUEB’s address is 25800 Carlos Bee Blvd, Hayward, CA 94542 USA.

The responsible parties at CSUEB are:
1. Dr. Ray Wallace, Executive Director, International Programs
   Tel: 510-701-4266; email: ray.wallace@csueastbay.edu
2. Dr. Buddy James, Chair, Music Department
   Tel: 510-885-3149; email: buddy.james@csueastbay.edu

ARTICLE II: REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 1. CSUEB represents and warrants that it is the State of California, acting in its higher education capacity, and has the legal capacity to enter into this Agreement.

Section 2. SCNU represents and warrants that it:
   a. is an educational entity in good standing in the country of China;
   b. has the legal authority to enter into this Agreement; and
   c. has obtained all necessary approvals and rights required by applicable laws, rules and regulations necessary to enter into, and perform under, this Agreement.

ARTICLE III: THE PROGRAM:

Section 1. SCNU and CSUEB hereby agree to form a collaborative relationship to enroll students in CSUEB through an academic collaborative program which allows students in China to attend CSUEB upon successful completion of a set of general education and introductory music courses offered by SCNU in China which have been pre-approved and articulated by CSUEB (in its entirety, the “Program”). Students shall be admitted to CSUEB subject to earning a minimum high school GPA (3.0) and a minimum grade point average at SCNU (2.0); as well as satisfying the English proficiency requirement (see Attachment A) and all other requirements in accordance with CSUEB admission requirements in existence at the time of a student’s application for admission to CSUEB through the Program. It is further agreed that CSUEB shall assist students to enroll at CSUEB via the IEP program for the English proficiency requirement as outlined in Attachment B.

Section 2. Program Description
   a) During domestic study section in SCNU, students of this program are not yet registered as CSUEB students. After successful accomplishment of all the specified courses, students will be registered as CSUEB students and study thereafter.
   b) Students will come to CSUEB with an F-1 visa and must obtain appropriate health insurance coverage and maintain academic and immigration status to continue at CSUEB.
   c) Students will complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts (BA) in music as described in the CSUEB Catalog and the Department of Music Handbook.
   d) In order to begin music study at CSUEB, students must pass an entrance audition, either in-person or by video. The audition may include sight reading.
   e) Students will major in music at CSUEB for the duration of their studies.
   f) Students in this program must meet all other conditions for admission, including academic GPA and English language abilities.
g) Upon beginning musical study, students will be assessed on their abilities in music theory and sight singing. If it is determined that they need additional practice, students will complete additional coursework in music theory and sight singing.

h) Students may also participate in the Music Education Subject Matter Preparation Program, which prepares graduates for careers in music education.

i) Students are expected to make timely progress towards degree completion.

j) The number of students that participate in the program will be determined by consultation between the participating universities with an agreed upon target of up to 25 per cohort.

k) Requirements for completion the CSUEB BA degree in Music:

180 quarter units are required for an undergraduate degree, out of which 54 quarter units are granted by SCNU and exempted by CSUEB.

72 total General Education quarter units are required:
- 20 units from SCNU to CSUEB can be exempted
- 52 quarter GE units will be completed at CSUEB.
- Plus any non-credit remedial English/Math course work

82 Total quarter units for the major of Music are required—
(49 Lower Division Units and 33 Upper Division Units)
- 34 lower division quarter units from SCNU can be exempted
- 15 lower division quarter units for the major in Music will be completed at CSUEB by coursework and/or demonstration of proficiency
- 33 upper division quarter units for the major in Music will be completed at CSUEB

Participants in this program will complete minimum of 126 quarter units at CSUEB to complete the B.A. degree in Music.

(Note: The Subject Matter Preparation curriculum for music education entails a total of up to 82 quarter units. Units in excess are voluntary (but strongly recommended) for music education preparation; for students not electing the subject matter preparation curriculum, courses will be selected in consultation with a music advisor).

ARTICLE IV: RESPONSIBILITIES OF SCNU

Section 1. SCNU shall maintain and offer general education and lower division music courses pre-approved by CSUEB to students who have been conditionally accepted to CSUEB through the Program. (See Attachment B)

Section 2. SCNU shall maintain academic records of all students in the Program and shall issue transcripts upon students’ request.
Section 3. SCNU shall provide an equal level of academic rigor, standards and benefits to the students in the Program as it does to SCNU’s other students, including but not limited to issuing student identification cards and providing full access to the library and other student facilities and resources.

Section 4. At no time shall SCNU:
   a) Represent itself as a CSUEB entity, partner, agent or representative.
   b) Suggest to prospective students or students that they can come to the United States on a student visa with a primary purpose other than full-time study.
   c) Make any false or misleading comparisons (or claims of association) between CSUEB and any other educational institution.
   d) Make any representation that CSUEB is or is not associated with any other educational institution.
   e) Facilitate applications for prospective students who do not satisfy or comply with CSUEB admission requirements.
   f) Offer any guarantees to prospective students or students about uncertainties such as whether they will be granted a student visa; whether they will be admitted to the Program; or the likelihood of obtaining financial aid or scholarships.
   g) Give to any third parties, including but not limited to students or prospective students, any promotional or other Program-related information that has not been pre-approved in writing by CSUEB.
   h) Commit CSUEB to accept any prospective student or student into the Program.
   i) Undertake any advertising or promotional activity (including distributing or otherwise publishing any materials) about CSUEB or the Program without CSUEB’s prior written consent.
   j) Use any registered or unregistered California State University or CSUEB Marks without prior written authorization from CSUEB. "Marks" means logos, trademarks, service marks, designs, and other intellectual property that belong to, are owned by, are licensed to, or carry the name of CSUEB and/or the California State University, or any other name protected by California Education Code section 89005.5, whether registered or not registered

ARTICLE V: RESPONSIBILITIES OF CSUEB

Section 1. CSUEB, through its International Admissions office, shall review student applications and issue conditional acceptance to CSUEB for undergraduate studies.

Section 2. Upon completing the general education and music courses offered by SCNU (see Attachment B), students who have not satisfied the English proficiency requirement shall then enroll into IEP at CSUEB and attend the appropriate level of IEP based on their individual IEP placement assessment.
Section 3. CSUEB shall grant and allow students to transfer up to 54 quarter units for all pre-approved academic courses completed by students with satisfactory grades from SCNU, as described in Attachment B.

ARTICLE VI: FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

No monetary or other consideration will be exchanged between the Parties.

ARTICLE VII: DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PROGRAM

Section 1. This agreement shall remain in force for five years from the date of signing and may be terminated by either party with one year written notification in advance.

Section 2. Should this Agreement expire or be terminated, students issued conditional acceptance letters and/or currently enrolled in the Program shall be allowed to complete their education under the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section 3. Within thirty (30) days of expiration or termination of this Agreement, each Party shall return to the other Party all of such other Party's Program materials (including photocopies) by registered mail or reputable international courier. Each Party shall then permanently destroy any electronic copies of the other Party's materials. It is the intent of this Agreement that upon expiration or termination, neither Party shall retain any of the other Party's Program materials, Program-related materials or proprietary information.

Section 4. Subject to Section 2 above, upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, each Party shall immediately cease making any representations of any collaboration between the Parties, except as is necessary to conclude pending application(s). The expiration or termination of this Agreement does not affect any accrued rights or remedies of either Party.

ARTICLE VIII: MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Compliance with Chinese Law. Compliance with the law of China is the sole responsibility of SCNU. SCNU agrees to obtain and maintain all permits, licenses and other approvals required in connection with the operations contemplated herein.

Section 2. Privacy. CSUEB and SCNU will keep confidential at all times any and all information and personal data received from the other relating to teaching strategy, students and tutors, and their performance and progress. Unless compelled by law, no personal data received from the other Party will be divulged to any third party without the prior written approval of the individual to whom such personal data relates. The CSUEB is, and SCNU may be subject to various privacy, freedom of information and public records laws, and CSUEB and SCNU agree that they will co-operate and provide all necessary assistance within the legal limits of each country in order to comply with these legal obligations.

Section 3. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of California. The Parties agree that all actions or proceedings arising in connection with this Agreement shall be tried and litigated exclusively in the state courts located in the County of Alameda, State of California. The aforementioned choice of venue is intended by the Parties to be mandatory and not permissive in nature, thereby precluding the possibility of litigation between the Parties with respect to or arising out of this Agreement in any jurisdiction other than that specified in this paragraph. Each Party hereby waives any right it may have to assert the doctrine of forum non conveniens or similar doctrine or to object to venue or jurisdiction with respect to any proceeding brought in accordance with this paragraph, and stipulates that the state courts located in the County of Alameda, State of California shall have in personam jurisdiction and venue over each of them for the purpose of litigating any dispute, controversy, or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement. Any final judgment rendered against a Party in any action or proceeding shall be conclusive as to the subject of such final judgment and may be enforced in other jurisdictions in any manner provided by law.

Section 4. Insurance. Under Chinese law, SCNU confirms that it is permissibly self-insured for damages, claims or actions in amounts sufficient to support the indemnifications set forth herein. SCNU also confirms that its self-insurance shall be primary in connection with all indemnification and/or hold harmless obligations set forth in this Agreement.

Students participating in the Program are also required to procure medical insurance that meets the requirements of CSUEB and the United States government. Such insurance may be obtained through CSUEB. It is also recommended that any dependents accompanying Students procure health insurance coverage that is comparable to what is required for Students.

Section 5. Non-Exclusive Agreement. This is a non-exclusive Agreement, and either Party may contract with third parties to provide other similar programs.

Section 6. No Agency or Partnership Relationship. It is expressly understood that no employee, agent, partner or representative of either Party is an employee, representative, partner or agent of the other Party:

a. Each Party performs under this Agreement as an independent contractor, and has no authority to represent or bind the other Party.

b. No Party’s employees are entitled to unemployment or workers’ compensation benefits from the other Party.
c. SCNU shall require its Program staff and instructors to acknowledge in writing that (i) they are not employees, representatives, partners or agents of CSUEB; (ii) they shall not represent themselves as such; and (iii) they have no authority to represent or bind CSUEB.

Section 7. Assignment. SCNU shall not assign this Agreement or any right or duty under this Agreement without the prior written consent of CSUEB, which can be withheld at its discretion. Any request for such consent shall be accompanied by the proposed written assignment.

Section 8. Subcontracting. SCNU shall not subcontract to any other person, entity or agency the performance of any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of CSUEB, which may be withheld at its discretion. Any request for such consent shall be accompanied by the proposed written agreement between SCNU and the third party in question.

Section 9. No Endorsement. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring on any Party, any right to use the other Party’s name as an endorsement of any product or service or to advertise, promote or otherwise market any product or service without the prior written consent of the other Party. Furthermore, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as an endorsement of any commercial product or service by CSUEB, its officers, employees or agents.

Section 10. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a legal right in any Program participant or other third party to enforce its terms or to subject either Party to liability to any participant or other third party for any failure to comply with its terms.

Section 11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter herein. No modification or amendment to this Agreement shall be binding upon the Parties unless made in writing and duly executed by authorized representatives of both Parties.

Section 12. Force Majeure. Neither Party shall be liable for any delays in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to fire, strike, war, riots, acts of any civil or military authority, acts of God, judicial action, unavailability or shortages of labor, materials or equipment, impaction or enrollment restrictions ordered by the California State University, or failure or delay in delivery by suppliers or delays in transportation.

Section 13. Invalidity and Severability. If any of the provisions of this Agreement are determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provisions shall be severed from the Agreement, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect; provided, however, that with respect to any material provision so severed, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to achieve the original intent of such provision.

Section 14. Incentive Payments. The SCNU certifies that it has not given any incentive benefit directly or indirectly (monetary or in kind) to any employee of CSUEB, for the purpose of obtaining, or in connection with, this or any other agreement.

ARTICLE IX: INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. SCNU shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless California State University and each of their trustees, officers, employees, agents and volunteers from and against any and all liability, loss, expense, or claims for injury or damages arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with the performance of this Agreement, but only in proportion to and to the extent such liability, loss, expense, or claims for injury or damages are caused by or result from the negligence or intentional acts or omissions of SCNU, its officers, subcontractors, assignees, appointees, agents, or employees.

Section 2. California State University shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless SCNU and its trustees, officers, employees, subcontractors, appointees, agents and volunteers from and against any and all liability, loss, expense, or claims for injury or damages arising out of, resulting from, or in connection with the performance of this Agreement, but only in proportion to and to the extent such liability, loss, expense, or claims for injury or damages are caused by or result from the negligence or intentional acts or omissions of California State University, its officers, agents, or employees.

ARTICLE X: NOTICES

All notices under this Agreement must be in writing and sent by prepaid airmail and electronic mail to the persons identified in Article I.
ARTICLE XI: CONCLUSION

This Agreement shall be effective when signed by all signatories. Signatures below indicate acceptance of the terms, conditions, and responsibilities contained herein and represent that the signatories are authorized to bind the respective Parties.

SUBJECT TO CHANGE BY MUTUAL WRITTEN AGREEMENT
AMENDMENT

This amendment is made to the ARTICULATION AGREEMENT executed by and between South China Normal University ("SCNU") and the Trustees of the California State University ("CSU") on behalf of California State University, East Bay (collectively "CSUEB"), which commenced on March 21, 2016.

Due to staff changes at both institutions, Article I is amended as follows:

Section 1. The responsible parties at SCNU are:

1. Prof. Yang Tianjun, Dean, School of Music
   Tel: 86+(020) 39310003; Email: 1060584501@qq.com
2. Xiying Huang, School of Music, Director of International Programs Office
   Tel: 86+(020) 39310003; Email: eeci8373@hotmail.com

Section 2. The responsible parties at CSUEB are:

1. Thomas Tyner, Interim Executive Director, International Programs
   Tel: 510-885-7510; email: thomas.tyner@csueastbay.edu
2. Dr. Buddy James, Chair, Music Department
   Tel: 510-885-3149; email: buddy.james@csueastbay.edu

Article III, Section 1 is amended to correct a typographical error in the last sentence, which is amended to read

It is further agreed that CSUEB shall assist students to enroll at CSUEB via the IEP program for the English proficiency requirement as outlined in Attachment A.

In Fall 2018, CSUEB converted to a semester system. As a result of semester conversion, Article III, Section 2 is amended as follows:

k) Requirements for completion the CSUEB BA degree in Music:

120 semester units are required for an undergraduate degree, out of which 36 semester units are granted by SCNU and exempted by CSUEB.

48 total General Education (GE) semester units and 9 Graduation Requirement (GR) semester units are required:

- 18 GE semester units from SCNU to CSUEB can be exempted
- 30 GE semester units and 9 GR semester units will be completed at CSUEB.

54 Total semester units for the major of Music are required--
(24 Lower Division Units and 30 Upper Division Units)

- 15 lower division semester units from SCNU can be exempted
- 3 upper division semester units from SCNU can be exempted
- 9 lower division semester units for the major in Music will be completed at CSUEB by coursework and/or demonstration of proficiency
- 27 upper division semester units for the major in Music will be completed at CSUEB

Participants in this program will complete minimum of 36 semester units at CSUEB to complete the B.A. degree in Music.

(Note: The Subject Matter Preparation curriculum for music education entails a total of up to 31 semester units. Units in excess are voluntary (but strongly recommended) for music education preparation; for students not electing the subject matter preparation curriculum, courses will be selected in consultation with a music advisor).

In order to further clarify the General Education requirements at CSUEB, a new Attachment C has been added and Articles IV and V are amended as follows:

Article IV: RESPONSIBILITIES OF SCNU

Section 1. SCNU shall maintain and offer general education and lower division music courses pre-approved by CSUEB to students who have been conditionally accepted to CSUEB through the Program. (See Attachments B & C)

Article V: RESPONSIBILITIES OF CSUEB

Section 2. Upon completing the general education and music courses offered by SCNU (see Attachments B & C), students who have not satisfied the English proficiency requirement shall then enroll into IEP at CSUEB and attend the appropriate level of IEP based on their individual IEP placement assessment.

Section 3. CSUEB shall grant and allow students to transfer up to 36 semester units for all pre-approved academic courses completed by students with satisfactory grades from SCNU, as described in Attachments B & C. Students completing these courses with satisfactory grades at SCNU will be exempt from taking them at CSUEB.

In accordance with Article VIII, Section 11, this amendment incorporates and makes a part of the Parties’ Agreement the following Attachments related to academic programs beginning Fall 2018:

- Revised Attachment B, which supersedes and takes the place of the prior Attachment B
- New Attachment C
All other terms and conditions that are not hereby amended are to remain in full force and effect. By signing below, each of the following represent that they have authority to execute this Agreement and to bind the Party on whose behalf their signature is made.
