

Dr. George Goerl, Professor, Public Administration, passed away, February 2024

George Goerl, Professor Emeritus, Public Administration, passed away in February 2024. He received a bachelor's degree from UC Berkeley, and Master's Degrees from UC Berkeley and New York University and a Ph.D. in Political Science from UC Davis. He joined the Department of Public Administration in 1977 and later served a term as Department Chair. He became emeritus in 2010 and then continued teaching as a FERP faculty member. Dr. Goerl was a devoted teacher specializing in public finance and public policy. He enjoyed helping students launch their careers in the public service. George had a strong research interest in volunteerism in the public sector.