Richard M. Fronko, lecturer in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, passed away May 2, 2018. Please note the following information provided by family and friends:

A memorial card for Richard M. Fronko. It features a portrait photo of him at the top. Below the photo, the text reads "In Loving Memory of" followed by his name, "Richard (Dick) Michael Fronko". Underneath his name, it says "December 12, 1957 - May 2, 2018". The memorial continues with the date and location of the service: "Saturday, May 12, 2018 • 9:30 AM" at "Anderson Lake County Park" specifically at "Toyon Picnic Site; at the base of the dam 19245 Malagana Ave Morgan Hill, California". A message follows: "Anyone familiar with Richard knew that he loved life, so family and friends are getting together to celebrate his life to share stories and memories." At the bottom, it says "All are welcome to join us!"

Richard passed away on Wednesday, May 2, 2018 in his home in Santa Clara. Richard is father to Annelies (St. Joseph's School, Class of 2012), Jared and Jordan (Class of 2016).

Private services with family were held last Friday, May 4th. Additionally, Richard's family is holding a Celebration of Life and invites all to attend. Please refer to the information below:

You may know that Richard loved the Pittsburgh Penguin Ice Hockey Team. The team colors are black, gold/yellow and white. The theme for Richard's Celebration is the Pittsburgh Penguins. If possible, please wear team apparel if you have it, or the team colors.

Richard's family will be providing bagels, orange juice, coffee and water on Saturday. To those people who have generously asked how they can help or what they can do to offer support; if you would like to contribute a food dish to the Celebration, it would be appreciated. Please bring light, breakfast, finger food. In advance, please prepare or pre-cut your food contribution in small portions so serving is quick and easy. If your food item needs a serving spoon, please bring one. If you wouldn't mind letting me know what breakfast, finger food you will be bringing, I'll keep track of it for Darlene and email the list out, so we can try to provide a variety of food.
