- Have experienced a cumulative gap in your education of five years or more
- Anticipate workforce participation for a significant period of time subsequent to graduation
- Demonstrate academic promise and a commitment to completing your degree
- Demonstrate financial need

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Osher and Crankstart Reentry Scholarships are designed to provide financial assistance to reentry students completing an undergraduate degree in the PACE Program. The Bernard Osher Foundation, and the Crankstart Foundation, seek to recognize the commitment, efforts and financial hardships of reentry working adults as they balance their family, work and school responsibilities in order to achieve their educational goals. The Osher and Crankstart Reentry Scholarship can only be used towards tuition costs and will be distributed directly to the Cashier's Office.

To receive the Osher or Crankstart Reentry Scholarship you must meet all of the following eligibility requirements:

- ◆ Enrolled at CSUEB in the PACE Program and are pursuing their first bachelor's degree
- ◆ Have experienced a cumulative gap in their education of five years or more
- ◆ Anticipate workforce participation for a significant period of time subsequent to graduation
- ◆ Demonstrate academic promise and a commitment to completing your degree
- ◆ Demonstrate financial need
