

Which Psychology Degree Is Right for You?

Choose the pathway that aligns with your strengths, interests, and career goals.

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

- Broad, flexible foundation
- Ideal for counseling, social work, school psychology, MFT
- Careers in human services, education, community settings
- Strong fit for students focused on people & communities

Bachelor of Science (BS)

- Emphasis on research & statistics
- Preparation for doctoral & research-intensive programs
- Interests in neuroscience or I/O psychology
- Careers in data analysis, UX, applied research

Success in either pathway depends on:

Strong academic performance (GPA)
Research, internships, and applied experience
Intentional advising and planning

Scan to connect with College of Science Advising
Plan your degree pathway early and strategically.