Strongly Recommended as part of your Application

- School-based experience/volunteer community work with children and youth: Applicants will be committing to future work as a school psychologist in schools and communities with children and youth; therefore, some work experience or volunteer experience is important to help applicants better understand the interactions with this population (e.g., summer camp, afterschool program, paraprofessional, behavioral support, tutoring).

- Shadow/interview a school psychologist: Contact your local district or PK-12 school to interview/shadow a school psychologist (or multiple school psychologists) to better learn the role. This experience will add to you statement of purpose.

- Prospective Student Information Session: Attend one of the program's information sessions for prospective students. This is a great opportunity to ask questions, meet faculty, and obtain tips to the application process. See our website for information meeting dates.
