Discarded people come to “All the More to Love” - a store for “reclaimed” clothing. People who the world does not consider beautiful enough, thin enough, masculine enough or “normal” enough to meet society’s standards. They come there to not only find new clothes, but a new self. Among these are a diet junkie, an oil rig worker who is a closet cross-dresser, a drag queen whose act has become a drag, and a biker chick who will find herself turned into a Renoir painting by the store’s magic transformative powers.

CSUEB is presenting the California premiere of ALL THE MORE TO LOVE in Spring 2021. This new musical has played in Europe and Arizona where it was awarded “Subscribers’ Favorite” at the Phoenix Theatre. Music is by Craig Bohmler, whose musical GUNMETAL BLUES (with ALL THE MORE TO LOVElyricist Marion Adler) has had over 250 productions. His ENTER THE GUARDSMAN (also with Ms. Adler) won first prize in the International Musical of the Year competition, and premiered in London where it was nominated for an Olivier Award for “Best Musical.” Both musicals have played Off-Broadway. The book and direction for ALL THE MORE TO LOVE are by CSUEB Theatre Department’s Marc Jacobs (SF Bay Area Critics Circle Award and two Shellie Awards for Outstanding Direction of a Musical).

“Composer Craig Bohmler has a knack for writing good melodies with engaging hooks complimented by Marion Adler’s clever and often witty lyrics. Marc Jacobs has done a wonderful job of juggling the many stories and presenting them in a way that seems to make the next vignette more engaging than the one before. As it stands, All The More To Love - the perfect title for this musical comedy – is hugely entertaining.” - KEZ Radio

HOW WE WILL PRESENT THE SHOW:
Because of Covid 19 ALL THE MORE TO LOVE is going to be done as “Virtual Theatre.” That means it will be a hybrid production where some songs and scenes are filmed on a set on a stage, some are filmed in a TV studio with green screen, and others will be done on zoom. All three formats will be edited together with effects added and the finished video will be streamed to a large audience between March 5 and March 14, 2021.

CAST AND STYLE:
All the More to Love is an “anthology musical.” That means each scene tells a different story and features different characters. The one thing they all have in common they are all customers at the same store – “All the More to Love.” The show has 29 characters and a musical score with a style as varied as the store’s customers, containing Country-Western, Gospel, Rap, Jazz and Broadway. All roles are open to all races and most roles are gender fluid.

REHEARSALS:
Rehearsals will begin January 19, 2021 although the cast will get vocal tracks of the songs to learn before that. Rehearsals will be scheduled as per actors’ availability (which is why you will be asked when you are available to rehearse on the google audition form, so please be specific and accurate!). We are also asking that the cast keep Monday-Thursday nights 6:30pm – 10pm open if possible.

HOW TO GET A SCRIPT, RECORDING AND MUSIC:

CALLBACKS AND MOVEMENT AUDITIONS:

1. Callbacks will be done by appointment (you will be given a day and time) and on Zoom starting Friday, Sept. 2.
2. You will be sent a side (short section of dialogue from the script) for the character you are being called back for. You will probably also be asked to repeat the song segment you did for your audition. Also, if you would like to sing a song that is not from the show so we can get a better idea of your range, you may do that in this Zoom callback session as long as you have a backup track (like karaoke) to accompany your singing.
3. Movement auditions will be scheduled as a zoom session with the choreographer after the callbacks.

CHARACTERS AND SONGS:

(* The list below gives you a brief idea of the scenes and the characters and what song(s) they sing. For the audition you may be assigned a different song than the character you are auditioning for as we are looking more for your general range and voice type and quality.)*
