Editorial

They Don't 'Ad' Up: Campaign advertisements fail to bring real issues out. See page 4.

Photo Essay

Unearthed:

Artifacts buried under San Francisco on exhibit. See page 2.

News

Let's Talk About Sex: Speaker hits CSUH with a few intimate questions. See page 3.

A & E Girl Power: Women's History Month celebrated at CSUH. See page 9.

March 7, 2002

- Photo Essay, p2,5
- Editorial, p4
- Movies, p6
- A & E, p8,9,10
- Classifieds, p9

PUBLISHED FOR THE CSUH COMMUNITY AND THE EAST BAY FREE ONER

Scruffy Scrivener

Special Speaker: Michael Moore, host of the Emmy Award winning show "TV Nation" and author of the book, "Stupid White Men", had a book signing at the University Union on March 4.

Photo/Loise Manuel

Student Found Dead on Campus: Suffered Severe Head Injuries in Fall

By Jennifer Givens

Raymond Burton, 25, formerly a temporary support assistant in the Cal State Hayward Information and Computer Assistance Department, was found dead on campus Sunday, March 3.

Mr. Burton had senior standing at CSUH and was working toward a degree in computer Passersby noticed Mr. Burton's body shortly after noon in an alley on the south side of the library building, not far from the campus police station.

His body, in dark clothing and sneakers, was lying on its side, about 30 feet from the sidewalk. He had suffered severe head trauma, but as of Wednesday the Alameda County Coroner had not released an official cause of death.

According to a report provided by the coroner's office, injuries to Mr. Burton's head and body were attributable to a fall from the plaza level of the library building, approximately five stories above where he was found.

No information was available about his next of kin or about funeral arrangements.

CSU and CFA Reach Tentative Agreement

From CSU and CFA Reports

fter bargaining for nearly a year, the California After bargaining for nearly a year, and State University system and the California Faculty Association have agreed on terms for a tentative, three-year agreement that includes a 2 percent faculty salary increase for each fiscal year, 2001/02 and 2002/03, and additional selected raises for 2002/03.

The agreement is subject to ratification by the CFA membership, and approval by the CSU Board of Trustees. The agreement would be in place through June 30, 2004.

A 2.65 percent Service faculty members, effective June 30.

• A 2 percent general salary increase, effective July 1.

• A 2.65 percent Service Salary Increase, effective June 30, 2003.

• A 2.65 percent Service Salary Increase, effective June 30, 2004. Further, lecturers with six years of continuous service will receive automatic, three-year contracts that can be renewed upon review, provided there is work available. According to Professor Tom McCoy, the CFA's representative at Cal State The contract includes the Hayward, temporary faculty "will have preference over new hires for any classes you have taught successfully at any CSU campus.

A more detailed story is scheduled for "This is what students are paying for, Salary Increase for eligible The Pioneer of March 14.

SUH Health Center Asks Students for Feedback By Joy Dekay

Many Cal State Hayward students have received the Health Assessment 2001 survey in the mail, but only a few have answered the call.

the Student Health Center, 3000 a typical college campus, she said. students were randomly selected to Garcia-Fillion and Dr. Cathleen participate in the survey, used to Coulman designed the survey by determine the kind of health care Cal State students need, but only 700 have responded.

According to Pamela Garcia-Fillioa of problems may be different than those of adapting a University of Minnesota survey to fit CSUH students. A survey like this has never been following:

Because CSUH is a commuter school done at Cal State Hayward and it is one • A 2 percent general salary with a very diverse student body, health of the few that have been done in the increase, effective April 1. CSU system.

See Survey, page 8.

66-Year-Old Hayward Public Pool Scheduled for a Facelift Park, the neon Hayward Plunge sign Admission price was 45 cents - Monday through Friday from 6 to 8:30

hose who commute through Hayward on Mission Boulevard might be too preoccupied with their driving to notice the large, indoor swimming pool on the east side of the road, just south of Jackson Street.

In fact, the Hayward Plunge that has been in existence for the past 66 years. Tucked into the greenery of Memorial isn't that noticeable, but those who work there or use the pool regularly know it well - and that it is as old as the building itself.

The Plunge has been in operation since 1936. After committing an initial budget of about $85,000 to build the facility, the City of Hayward opened the Plunge on Aug. 21, 1936. Total cost was including suit and towel - or 35 cents for those with their own suits, and 25 cents for children.

Nowadays, 45 cents can buy you a few minutes for a long distance call or about two hours at the parking meters.

Public swimming is available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 a.m. and from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Cost is $3.25 for adults, $2.75 for children. Lap swimming is available a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and from 5 to 7 p.m. The fee is $3.50 per person.

The Hayward Area Recreation and Park District owns and operates the Plunge, welcoming the public to use the 110-by-60-foot swimming pool and it's various features, including two diving boards.

Also, the Plunge offers water aerobics, swimming lessons and programs for anyone who is interested.

I would like to see the Hayward Plunge as a part of our community, and to represent our community," said Robin has been with the Plunge since 1968. She started working there while she was attending Kennedy High School.

We represent our community in all the different colors, in all the different ideas and all the different abilities, in a building like this, built in 1936," she said. "Where's a better place to do it? We're hoping to keep (the Plunge) together and mold it.'

Of water aerobics for seniors she said, "Water is an equalizer. I can be fat, I can be skinny, I can be pregnant, I can See Plunge, page 8.

Danchamp' Says 'Let's Dada-Dance'

Danchamp Dancers: Dancers Davcas Sims and Frances Sedayao rehearse for the Danchamp Festival.

Photo/Terry Smith

By Cindy Chung

he five-month Duchamp Festival at CSUH is coming

The final event is a collaboration of performances featured in "Danchamp: A Celebration of the Life and Art of Marcel

The festival began in November with an exhibition of Duchamp's work in the University Art Gallery. "It is pretty phenomenal that CSUH got [Duchamp's] work," said Laura Renaud-Wilson, coordinator of dance The Danchamp productions - beginning Friday - will feature mostly modern dance. The performers will include alumni, faculty and students. The dance concert is a culmination of our work in 2001 to 2002 for the festival," said Renaud-Wilson, who created a piece called "Chess," because Duchamp was an avid chess

"I've taken pieces and manipulated movements that pieces do, whimsical and combative dance, very abstract," said Renaud-Wilson. Eric Kupers, a director of the concert, created a piece titled

'This piece works from an emotional point of view. It challenges the usual way of thinking," said Kupers. "There is a clear political statement.'

There will be a variety of unique performances created by faculty choreographers and also a guest choreographer, the renowned Margaret Jenkins.

Jenkins has her own, San Francisco-based company and has created works for international and national dance

She has choreographed a work called "Delay" for the Danchamp production.

"The piece can be seen in many ways," according to Kupers, who is also Jenkins' assistant for the production.

See Danchamp, page 8.

Plunge into History: The Hayward Plunge has not only kept its original infrastructure, but it also has the not changed the location of the high dive board.

Photo/Dana Kong