and he started directing plays after becoming adviser to the campus drama club.

Mr. dela Cruz was an experienced dancer and actor. His extensive directing career was highlighted by his production of "Oedipus the King", winner of a national award from the American College Theatre Festival.

Mr. dela Cruz directed six CSUH productions in Slovakia, Cyprus and Scotland during the past 12 years. He was scheduled to direct a university production of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" at the Edinburgh Festival in Scotland next month.

The "Twelfth Night" and "The Emperor's New Clothes," which he was directing at the time of his death, will open as scheduled July 16 and July 23 respectively. He was also directing a play for children this summer as a part of the annual CSUH Highlands Summer Theatre.

In addition to his work with CSUH students, he was a guest faculty member at several different universities, including the University of the Philippines, the University of Illinois, Columbia University and Cal State Fullerton.

Thomas Hird, chairman of the theatre and dance department, said Mr. dela Cruz had earned praise intentionally "for taking the rawest of materials and fashioning theatre artists

Another Fee Increase for CSUH

Besides changing prices, recently vendors have added new products, such as detergent and some other personal products to the machines in the campus aptmtns for student convenience. The Golden State Vending also provides microwaves in some locations at no charge.

Ehrhorn is planning to survey the students during the fall quarter to determine if they want additional units or different locations to add units.

According to Ehrhorn, there are over 40 vending machines on the Cal State Hayward campus and dorms, including Meiklejohn Hall, Science Building, Physical Education Building, University Union, Pioneer Heights and the Contra Costa Campus. Those machines are owned by two independent companies; Pepsi Bottling provides all of the cold beverages and Golden State Vending provides snacks, hot

Governor Selects New Board Members

CSU campuses by developing administrative policies and appointing the chancellor and vice chancellors. Other objectives of the board of trustees include overseeing management of funds, property and facilities.

There are 24 voting members on the board, including Schwarzenegger, and one non-voting student member. All members serve an eight-year term except for student, alumni, and faculty trustees, who serve for two years. The student trustees serve staggered two-year terms allowing the senior student member voting right in the final year of their term.

The other members of the board are Jeffrey Bleich, an attorney and adjunct professor of law at UC Berkeley's Boalt Hall; Herbert Carter, past president of CSU Dominguez Hills; Carol Chandler, a former instructor at Fresno City College and a former UC regent; Moctesuma Esparza, a telecommunications expert; George Gowgani, a longtime professor and former head of crop science at California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo; Raymond Holdsworth, past president of the California Chamber of Commerce and Melinda Guzman-Moore, a business and labor lawyer and chair of the California Hispanic Chamber of Commerce.

who are practicing around the world."

Mr. dela Cruz was also a published poet and recently finished writing a book, "Directing for Theatre, A Personal Approach," in which he elaborates on observations about his life in the theatre and ideas about acting and directing. It is scheduled to be published by the University of the Philippines Press in November.

His theatre students thought grandly of him and he touched the lives of many.

"Edgardo is like no other professor I have ever had," said

Melanie Gardner, class of 1989. "I learned so much from him about acting and production. He is so dedicated to his work and his students."

His family has requested that remembrances be made to the Cal State Hayward International Theatre Fund. Checks for donations in Mr. dela Cruz' name may be made out to the Cal State Hayward Educational Foundation and they can be sent to the CSUH Office of University Advancement, Warren Hall, Room 908, 25800 Carlos Bee Blvd. Hayward, CA. 94542.
