Carol Channing Visits CSUEB

Tony Award winning actress Carol Channing visited the university this week to raise money for scholarships for students in the dance and theatrical arts program. During her visit, she was honored at a dinner on Monday night (left) and then met with students and gave a performance at the University Theatre Tuesday (right).

Channing is a longtime supporter of education in the performing arts.

Hello Students! Carol Channing meets with students from the Theatre and Dance Department Tuesday. She later performed at a fundraising event in the University Theatre.
