📢 A Message from Your ASI President

Your ASI Update

ASI is continuing the year with incredible momentum! We recently passed our 2026–2027 Policy Agenda, which is available on the ASI website and reflects the priorities we're committed to advancing for students.

We've been working diligently on various resolutions, identifying student needs, holding meetings, and collaborating with student organizations and departments across campus.

We also had a great presence during Pioneer Spirit Week and were encouraged to see how many students feel at home because of the community and culture we share at East Bay.

Please stop by our office hours to share your ideas, we'd love to hear directly from you.

With exciting initiatives planned for October and much more ahead, we're looking forward to creating meaningful change together!

East Bay All the Way!

Matthias Dempsey, ASI President

🍏 In-Season Produce + Recipes

Enjoy What's in Season!

Seasonal produce is often fresher, more flavorful, and budget-friendly. Check out what's in season this month, plus quick recipes and snack ideas.

What's Fresh: Cauliflower, apples, delicata squash

Quick Recipe: Buffalo Cauliflower Bites

Toss cauliflower florets with a little oil, garlic powder, salt, and pepper, then roast until golden and crispy. Toss with buffalo sauce for a spicy, flavor-packed bite.

Make it a meal: Wrap them in a tortilla with lettuce and ranch or yogurt dressing.

Snack Idea: Apple Cinnamon Yogurt Dip

Mix a dash of cinnamon and a drizzle of honey into Greek yogurt, then dip in crisp apple slices. It's creamy, cozy, and tastes like fall in every bite.
